

Acid Catalyzed Michael Addition Reaction Mechanism

Written by punjalak

Friday, 16 December 2016 15:49 -

pGgriujLURk

This video discusses the acid catalyzed mechanism of the michael addition reaction. The michael addition reaction produces 1,5-dicarbonyl compounds which can be an aldehyde or a ketone. Both the acidic alpha and gamma hydrogen atoms are considered in this video.

Source : <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCEWpbFLzoYGPfuWUMFPSaoA>

Source : The Organic Chemistry Tutor